

Maple Springs Swimming Association
Constitution and Bylaws

Revised March 24, 2019

CONSTITUTION

Article I

1. This corporation is a non-profit corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and shall be known as Maple Springs Swimming Association, and the purpose shall be to acquire, establish and maintain a swimming pool; to erect and maintain such other facilities required for the purpose of providing for the furnishing of refreshments, entertaining and social diversion of its members, and for the rights, benefits and privileges of the Act of Assembly and its supplements; that is an association that does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit, incidental or otherwise to its members.

Article II

1. Membership in the corporation shall be evidence by a share certificate which shall be non-assessable, non-negotiable, non profit-sharing, non interest bearing and shall be acquired by the purchase of three (3) shares of stock at a price set by the Board of Directors. All class A members on the registry of Maple Springs Swimming Association as of December 1, 1975 shall purchase one additional share of stock in said swimming pool association at a set price by the Board of Directors in order to continue to qualify as a class A member of the Corporation.
2. Membership shares may be sold to the Corporation or privately, provided that the private sale of shares shall be registered in the new owner's name with the Corporation before the sale will be recognized by the Corporation. All Class A members shall remain responsible for all charges imposed upon or incurred by the member, members in the family, and guests by the Corporation until the shares are registered in the new owner's name. All delinquent or current charges incurred by the Seller must be paid prior to registration of the new member.

At the discretion of the Board of Directors, the Corporation shall have the option to purchase membership shares submitted to it at a price agreeable to both the members and the Board of Directors not more than the original sale price of such shares when issued and to purchase on the same terms such membership shares as shall be recalled by the Board of Directors. Purchases shall be made chronologically in the order submitted. The Corporation shall be under no obligation to redeem any stock certificates until such charges or liabilities shall have been paid.

3. The Corporation, through its Board of Directors, may revoke the membership and recall the share-certificate of any member who fails to comply with lawful and reasonable rules, regulations and requirements duly enacted by the Corporation for the Government of its members, or has otherwise so conducted himself as to give cause for revocation of membership. No membership shall be revoked or certificates recalled except upon a ten (10) days written notice to the member concerned to attend a hearing before the Board of Director. There shall be no appeal to the membership from the decision of the Board of Directors concerning the revocation or recall of any certificate or revocation of membership.

4. Shareholders shall be responsible for the payment of all charges or liabilities, including current season dues and delinquent dues that may be imposed upon or incurred by Shareholder/member or their families to whom privileges of the Corporation shall have been extended, and for all charges and liabilities imposed or incurred by guests introduced by them. Shareholders are responsible for the payment of seasonal dues each season until the time their stock is sold or surrendered in accord with Article II, Section 2, including the then current seasonal dues. Delinquencies outstanding for two years shall be subject to revocation of membership and recall of membership shares pursuant to Article II, Section 3.
5. The membership of the Corporation shall consist initially of 400 members. Additional members may be accepted, if practical, into the Corporation, if authorized by the same vote of the membership as required to amend the Constitution.
6. In order to become a member of the organization, an applicant must be proposed by a voting member in good standing, submit the necessary application forms, and be interviewed by members of the Membership Committee who shall make their recommendations to the Board of Directors at their next regular meeting whereupon the application shall be voted upon. A 2/3 vote of the Board of Directors shall be required for approval of any applicant.
7. Upon the death of any certificate holder, said certificate shall be transferable on the transfer book of the Corporation to the surviving spouse or adult child who shall form part of the deceased members' household, but such transferee shall not be entitled to the privilege of membership including the right to vote, unless such transferee has been elected to membership in the Corporation as heretofore provided.
8. Persons other than those holding share certificates may become members, in such classes and upon such terms and conditions, and may be entitled to such privileges, as the By-Laws shall provide.

Article III

1. Each Certificate holder of record in the Corporation transfer book on the fifth (5th) calendar day in advance of any regular or special meeting of certificate holders shall be entitled to one vote at such meeting, provided he/she is in good standing with the corporation.
2. Those entitled to a vote shall cast their votes in person, or otherwise as stipulated by the Board of Directors, but there shall be no voting by proxy, except that the certificate-holder may vote by proxy by designating his or her spouse to cast the vote to which the certificate-holder is entitled.

Article IV

1. The management of the Corporation shall be vested in a Board of Directors who shall direct the investment and care of funds and property of the Corporation; make appropriations for specific purposes, act upon applications for membership; appoint employees, subordinate officers and committees; fill vacancies in the office and in the Board; and generally conduct the Corporation business in accordance with the By-Laws and the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
2. The Board of Directors shall consist of fifteen (15) members. The first Board of Directors shall consist of those persons named as officers and directors in paragraph six (6) of the Articles of Incorporation. They shall serve until the initial meeting of stockholders to be held in August 1958. At said meeting, fifteen directors shall be elected, as follows: five (5) for a term of three (3) years; five (5) for a term of two (2) years; and five (5) for a term of one (1) year. At the semi-annual membership meeting beginning September, 1959, and at each semi-annual membership meeting in September thereafter, the members in good standing shall elect those directors whose terms shall have expired, as set forth above, and those directors shall serve for a period of three (3) years. At the annual membership meeting beginning July 1986, and at each annual meeting in July thereafter, the members in good standing shall elect those directors whose terms shall expire in September of the same year, and those directors shall serve for a period of three (3) years beginning in September of the same year.
3. The President of the Corporation, at least thirty (30) days before the July membership meeting, shall appoint a nominating committee of three voting members in good standing for the available offices of Director, and submit such nomination to the members at the July meeting, Nominations may also be made from the floor at the said meeting in July.

4. Vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be filled by a vote of 2/3 of the remaining members of the Board, and each person so elected shall serve until the next July meeting, whereupon the members shall elect a successor to serve the un-expired term.

Article V

1. The funds necessary for the conduct and management of the Corporation shall be raised by such membership fees and dues as shall be prescribed by the Board of Directors, by fines and penalties imposed for violations of rules and regulations, by donations, gifts, and voluntary contributions; by the proceeds from the sale of refreshments, of amusements and entertainment given or held by the Corporation's members, and by the proceeds from real and personal property of the Corporation.

Article VI

1. The exempt purpose for the Maple Springs Swimming Association is to fulfill the aquatic and related needs of the community. These needs include, but are not limited to, access to a swimming facility, aquatic instruction, and supporting an amateur competition swim team. For this purpose the Association shall allow admission to organizations and groups looking to access an aquatic facility and related programming. Examples of such groups include, but are not limited to, day cares, day camps, school or library programming, church groups, Boy and Girl Scouts of America, and athletic teams or organizations.
2. Should the dissolution of the Maple Springs Swimming Association ever occur, any residual funds would be dispersed to organizations such as these as part of the Association's exempt purpose.

Article VII

1. Amendments to the Constitution may be made by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting of the Corporation or at any special meeting called for that purpose; provided, however, that at least ten (10) days written notice of such amendment shall have been given by mail to each member entitled to vote, setting forth the Article to be amended and the proposed amendment.
